

No. 14-60796

IN THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE FIFTH CIRCUIT

ENTERGY MISSISSIPPI, INCORPORATED, Petitioner

v.

NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS BOARD, Respondent

On Appeal from an Order of the National Labor Relations Board

MOTION TO INTERVENE

Pursuant to Rule 15(d) of the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure and Rule 15.5 of the rules of this Court, the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, Local Unions 605 and 985 ("Unions") hereby petition this Court for permission to intervene in this case. The Unions seek the right to intervene in support of the respondent, the National Labor Relations Board ("NLRB").

The Unions were the charging parties in this case when it was before the NLRB. The United States Supreme Court ruled, in International Union, UAW, Local 283 v. Scofield, 382 U.S. 205, 222 (1965), that unions should be permitted to intervene in federal appellate court proceedings in cases in which they were the charging parties before the NLRB, whether they were successful or unsuccessful.

The Unions were successful charging parties before the NLRB and, therefore, ask that this Court grant them the right to intervene in this case in support of the NLRB. This request is timely under Court rule 15.5.

Respectfully submitted,
